Aryan has worked and supported:

- Creation of the dashboard prototype and worked single-handedly with a cloud hosting company to set the dashboard live.

Aryan had an inquisitive and learning approach throughout the internship period. During his internship, he demonstrated traits with self-motivation to learn new skills, confidence in his abilities, and great charisma, getting along with the entire team. Aryan was a faithful, responsible, and diligent employee. Along with his fellow workers, he consistently upheld the standards of competence.
